C.A. No. 05-599 (SLR)

Putative Class Action

DEFENDANT'S RESPONSE TO MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF INTERIM COUNSEL

Defendant TrueLink, Inc. ("TrueLink"), hereby submit its Response to Plaintiffs' Motion for Appointment of Interim Counsel ("Motion").

The focus of Plaintiffs' motion for appointment of his counsel as interim class counsel is the purported experience and expertise of plaintiffs' counsel, and their administrative staffing and retention of local counsel for this matter. TrueLink is not in a position to comment on these contentions. However, TrueLink, by this response, advises the Court of the existence of a related action pending in this Court, and the appointment of interim class counsel in that action.

On December 19, 2005, pursuant to Local Rule 3.1(b), TrueLink notified the Clerk of the Court of the relatedness of the above-captioned action to another putative class action against the same defendant, TrueLink, Inc., and its parent company, Trans Union, LLC, entitled Townes v. Trans Union, LLC and TrueLink, Inc., Case No. 04-1488 (JJF). This notice was prompted by the filing of Plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint on December 14, 2005, after this action was transferred from the U.S. District Court for the District of Kansas on August 16, 2005. Counsel for Plaintiffs in this action filed with the Clerk a letter, dated December 21, 2005, which disagreed that this action is related to Townes v. Trans Union, LLC and TrueLink, Inc. However, it appears from a comparison of the complaints in the two actions that some, if not all, members of the putative class in the above-captioned action are members of the putative class action in Townes, and both actions assert a common federal statutory claim against the same defendant.

In Townes v. Trans Union, LLC and TrueLink, Inc., Case No. 04-1488 (JJF), plaintiff alleges, on behalf of himself and a putative nationwide class of consumers, that the sale of credit reporting products to consumers through the Internet by TrueLink (and its parent company) violates the federal Credit Repair Organizations Act, 15 U.S.C. §1679 et seq. (“CROA”). (A copy of the Complaint in Townes is attached hereto as Exhibit A). Plaintiffs here also assert, on behalf of a putative nationwide class, that TrueLink’s sale of credit reporting products violates CROA, as well as other federal and state statutes. (A copy of the Milletts’ Second Amended Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit B). Because these actions “arise from the same or substantially identical transactions,” and “involve the same or substantially the same parties,” Local Rule 3.1(b), TrueLink respectfully submits that these cases are related and should be assigned to one judge for coordination.¹

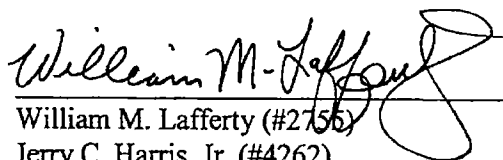

For reasons similar to those warranting transfer and coordination of multidistrict litigation under 28 U.S.C. § 1407, coordination of the Millett and Townes cases within this Court is appropriate. As cases which assert substantively identical CROA claims against the defendants on behalf of a nationwide class of consumers, coordination of scheduling, discovery, mediation and other stages of the litigation would serve the “convenience of the parties and witnesses and . . . promote the just and efficient conduct of such actions.” 28 U.S.C. § 1407.

See also Local Rule 3.1(b)(4)(suggesting coordination or consolidation of actions which “would entail substantial duplication of labor if heard by different judges.”).

Also relevant to Plaintiffs’ motion here is that Judge Farnan has already appointed interim class counsel in Townes by order dated October 31, 2005, and entered November 4, 2005. (A copy of the Court’s Memorandum Order appointing interim class counsel in Townes is attached hereto as Exhibit C). By that Order, Judge Farnan noted that Rule 23(g) permits a court to appoint interim counsel prior to class certification to eliminate rivalry among lawyers and the consequential uncertainty. (Order, Exhibit C, pp. 3-4)(citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g) advisory committee’s note). Given the overlapping claims and classes between Townes v. Trans Union, LLC and TrueLink, Inc. and the above-captioned action, the appointment of plaintiffs’ counsel as interim class counsel may create the rivalry and uncertainty that Judge Farnan’s prior order was intended to avoid. Even if the Court should decline to transfer or coordinate these proceedings at this time, at a minimum, TrueLink respectfully submits that the Court should consider the claims and classes asserted in the Townes action, and Judge Farnan’s order appointing interim class counsel there, in connection with the pending motion for appointment of interim counsel here.
